- where a third party has given us health information about you in confidence
- denying access is required or authorised by or under law

We will give you reasons if we deny access.

Contact us to get a form requesting access. In some cases we may be able to deal with your request over the telephone.

GOVERNMENT IDENTIFIERS

Although in certain circumstances we are required to collect government identifiers such as your tax file number, Medicare number or pension card number, we do not use or disclose this information other than when required or authorised by law or unless you have voluntarily consented to disclose this information to any third party.

ANONYMOUSLY DEALING

You can deal with us anonymously where it is lawful and practicable to do so. For example, if you inquire about home loan interest rates you do not need to provide your personal details.

SENSITIVE INFORMATION

Without your consent we will not collect information about you that reveals your racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs or affiliations, membership of a professional or trade association, membership of a trade union, details of health, disability, sexual orientation, or criminal record.

This is subject to some exceptions including:

- the collection is required by law
- when the information is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of a legal claim.
